Sri Lakshmi Narasimha Karavalamba Stotram, composed by Adi Shankaracharya, is a deeply devotional hymn in which the devotee pleads for the merciful hand of Lord Lakshmi Narasimha to uplift them from the ocean of worldly suffering, fear, ego, and ignorance. With each verse ending in the prayerful refrain “Lakshmi Narasimha, please give me your supporting hand,” the stotram conveys a soul’s heartfelt surrender, seeking divine grace for liberation from the endless cycle of birth and death. It reflects the essence of bhakti (devotion) intertwined with the wisdom of Advaita, reminding us that in moments of helplessness, fear, or death, only the compassionate embrace of the divine can offer true protection, clarity, and ultimate salvation.Reduce the impact of Rage, ignorance , Ego.
